Crayfish Party

Saturday August 23, 2008, at 18:00

Dear Members and Friends of SACC-Ohio,

The Swedish-American Chamber of Commerce – Ohio welcome you, your spouse, significant other and new members to a traditional Swedish Crayfish Party. We want to thankfully recognize your membership and encourage you to recruit additional members.

- A social event to share an old tradition
- Get to know fellow members and potentially new members
- Master of Ceremonies – Singing – Toasts
- Raffles with exciting prizes

Invite your potential member friends and colleagues to the Crayfish Party

You probably know someone who you think should consider membership in SACC-Ohio. Please invite them to this event. If they accept your invitation, list their names and corresponding email address on the RSVP form.

We will have the SACC-Ohio Brochure and Membership Application form available for their consideration.

We are excited to announce a major event this fall. The topic is "Doing Business with Scandinavia". The program will include presentations of the Economics and Trade Minister from the Swedish Embassy in Washington and similar representatives of other Scandinavian countries. A panel discussion including business personalities with long term experience from doing business with Scandinavia will be followed by a Q & A session. Further details will follow.
Also, stay tuned for our fall event in Columbus – more information to come soon.

Sincerely!
